- All vehicles not necessary for the display or sale of food must be moved off-site. Stallholders must not dismantle their stalls or begin packing up until the end of the event. No vehicles can be moved on or off the market site until after the event finishes.
- Please do not pack down your stall until the end of our event.

Products not to be sold include:

- Live birds or animals
- Fake or copies of designer brand named goods
- Weapons
- Items associated with the illegal use of drugs
- Offensive, counterfeit or unauthorised products
- Imported goods
- Items that the market management may consider unsuitable for the market

Food Safety and Hygiene Standards

- All stallholders must trade following the Food Hygiene Regulations
- Safe practices in food handling, cooking and storage are essential to prevent foodborne illness. All stalls must have adequate means of cleaning hands - either with anti-bacterial sanitising gel or wipes. Always clean hands before and after handling food
- All readily perishable food should be stored at a temperature that will protect it against deterioration and spoilage and in accordance with each stallholder's Individual food licence
- Baked goods must be covered with a 'sneeze guard'
- All food must be individually packaged or covered to protect from cross-contamination
- Care must be taken to protect food from cross-contamination when transported to and from Taupō Pride Picnic
- Tongs must be used to handle food - not hands. Gloves should be avoided if also handling money
- If food is cooked at the market, care must be taken to ensure that food is cooked through and served promptly to maintain the temperature
- Each vendor must have a fire extinguisher or fire blanket
